הnbחנים נדרשו לענות על שאלות 1-5

1. (iv) play basketball.
2. (iii) he knows the door is open.
3. (i) a blues singer.
4. He doesn't want his father to be mad at him because of the fact that instead of studying he wastes his time and meets with a stranger. Greg is about to fail math, therefore Greg's father wants him to invest all his time in studying. Greg's father lectures him about the importance of studying.
5. Thinking skill: Distinguishing different perspectives / Explaining cause and effect
 Greg changes his point of view about his father after meeting Lemon Brown. At the beginning of the story, he is angry that his father doesn't allow him to play basketball and wants him to study math. Through the story about his son, Lemon Brown teaches Greg that children are the most important thing for their parents. As a result, at the end of the story, Greg's attitude changes. He understands that his father pushes him to study because he wants the best for him. This understanding causes him to calm down and smile.

PART III (15 points)

הנבחנים נדרשו לענות על אחת מבין השאלות 16-17. להלן תשובות אפשריות

לשאלות 16 ו-17

THANK YOU, M'AM / Langston Hughes

16. This information helps me understand the story better because it connects to the story.

In the story, we are told about Roger, a young boy who tries to steal Mrs. Jones' bag.

Instead of punishing him, Mrs. Jones takes him to her house in order to teach him a lesson. She makes him dinner and tells him that she also made mistakes in the past. She tells him about her life and her job in the hotel beauty shop and shows him how she has changed. Her behavior makes Roger want to change. He shows her he can be trusted. This fits in with the information which says that we all make mistakes in life, but what is most important is to learn from those mistakes so we will not repeat them. Only by doing better we will have a good and successful life.

THE ROAD NOT TAKEN / Robert Frost

17. This quote helps me understand the poem better because it connects to the poem. In the beginning of the poem, the speaker stands in a yellow wood in front of a crossroads. The speaker looks at one road as far as he can, to see where it ends, but he can't because it bends in the undergrowth. The same is in real life, when we have to make a decision. We have several options, but we can not predict the results of our choice. This fits in with the quote which says that Robert Frost has learned life lessons from nature. His poems are written in a simple way but they have a lot of meaning.
