3. (i) used to be a famous singer.
4. Lemon Brown tries to teach Greg what is important in life. He delivers him a message that family is most valuable. He does that because Greg reminds him of his son, they both have moon eyes. In addition, Lemon Brown understands that something probably happened between Greg and his parents, since he is away from home on a stormy night.
5. Thinking skill I chose: Inferring

I assume that Greg smiles because he understands that his father cares about him and wants him to do better in life. In the beginning of the story, Greg is upset because his father conditions his participation in the basketball team with improving his grade in math. Meeting Lemon Brown changes his point of view. He learns that everybody has a treasure and our parents' lessons are our treasures too.

PART III (15 points)

הנבחנים נדרשו לענות על אחת מבין השאלות 11-13. להלן תשובות אפשריות
לשאלות 12 ו-13.

THE ROAD NOT TAKEN / Robert Frost

12.

This quote helps me understand the poem better because it connects to the poem. In the poem, the speaker stands in front of two roads in the wood and has to decide which one to take. He understands that this is an important decision, therefore he stands there for a long time and compares the two roads. He knows he can only take one. He realizes that one way leads to another and that he can't go back. This decision will change his life. This fits in with the quote which says that we can't change the past, we live with the choices we make and we need to adjust and move on.

A SUMMER'S READING / Bernard Malamud

This quote helps me understand the story better because it connects to the story. In the story, we are told about George, who lives in a poor immigrant neighborhood. He wants to fulfill the American dream; having a decent job, money and a private house. However, he does nothing to achieve it. His neighbor Mr. Cattanzara, wants to help him and pushes him to read books in order to get an education. At the end of the story, George goes to the library, picks up one hundred books and sits down to read. We can infer that this way he starts a new chapter in his life. This fits in with the quote which says that in order to succeed in life we need to do the first step.
