PART I (46 points)A. A SUMMER'S READING/ Bernard Malamud*הנבחנים נדרשו לענות על שאלות 1-5

1. (ii) to dream about a better life
2. (iv) doesn't talk to George about reading
3. (ii) don't spend time with George
4. Sophie is a hard working young woman. She works every day in a cafeteria. When Sophie thinks that George reads books, she gives him an allowance to encourage him. After the second meeting with Mr.Cattanzara, George refuses to come out of his room. Sophie figures out that he probably doesn't read. It makes her angry. Therefore, Sophie tells George that she doesn't need to work so hard for him, if he does nothing to change his life.
5. When George comes out of his room, he finds out that Mr. Cattanzara didn't tell the neighbors that he lied. That causes him to go to the library and start reading. I assume George does it for two reasons: first, he wants the neighbors to keep respecting him. George feels good when he is respected by his neighbors. Second, George wants to show Mr. Cattanzara that he still deserves his help and trust. Mr. Cattanzara tried hard to make George read – he asked him about his reading plans, and spread a rumor that George reads. George feels that Mr.Cattanzara gives him another opportunity to prove himself, and he doesn't want to disappoint him.

PART II (39 points)

B. THANK YOU, M'AM / Langston Hughesהנבחנים נדרשו לענות על שאלות 6-10

6. (ii) he wants to buy something
7. (iii) starts to prepare supper
8. (ii) her job
9. (i) can't say thank you Mrs. Jones

10. Thinking skill I chose: Inferring/ Uncovering motives

From Mrs. Jones' behavior, we can assume that she is interested in teaching Roger how to behave and not to steal. She wants to teach Roger a lesson for life instead of punishing him. She understands that there is nobody to educate him, so she takes the role of a parent. We can also understand that Mrs. Jones sees herself in Roger. She was poor when she was young and tried to steal too. Her goal is to help Roger change and have a better life. In order to do that, she tells him about her past and her present. Now she has a decent job, a place to sleep and some money. I infer that Mrs. Jones knows that if she wants to teach Roger these important lessons, she should be kind and emphatic towards him rather than aggressive.

PART III (15 points)הנבחנים נדרשו לענות על אחת מבין השאלות 11-12. להלן תשובות אפשריות לשאלות*11 ו-12.*11. THE TREASURE OF LEMON BROWN / Walter Dean Myers

This quote helps me understand the story better because it connects to the story. The story is about Greg, a fourteen year old boy who wants to play basketball but his father conditions it by having a good report card. Greg doesn't want to go home. Instead, he enters an abandoned building. There, he meets Lemon Brown, a homeless from his neighborhood. Lemon Brown teaches Greg that everyone has a treasure. A treasure doesn't have to be materialistic, it can also be spiritual. It is something that is worth fighting for. Lemon's treasure is a harmonica and newspaper clippings. Throughout the story, Greg understands that his treasure is his father's love. This fits in with the quote which says that relationships are the most important thing, and we need to treasure them, whereas materialistic things are less important.

12. THE ROAD NOT TAKEN / Robert Frost

This quote helps me understand the poem better because it connects to the poem. The poem is about a traveler who stands in a yellow wood in front of two roads. He faces a dilemma which road to take. He takes the one that is less traveled by and he is sorry that he can't take both roads. This is like in real life, when we make decisions, we know that they will influence our lives. This fits in with the quote which says that decisions are a big part of our lives. Some of the decisions we make shape our future. We should be smart and choose carefully.
